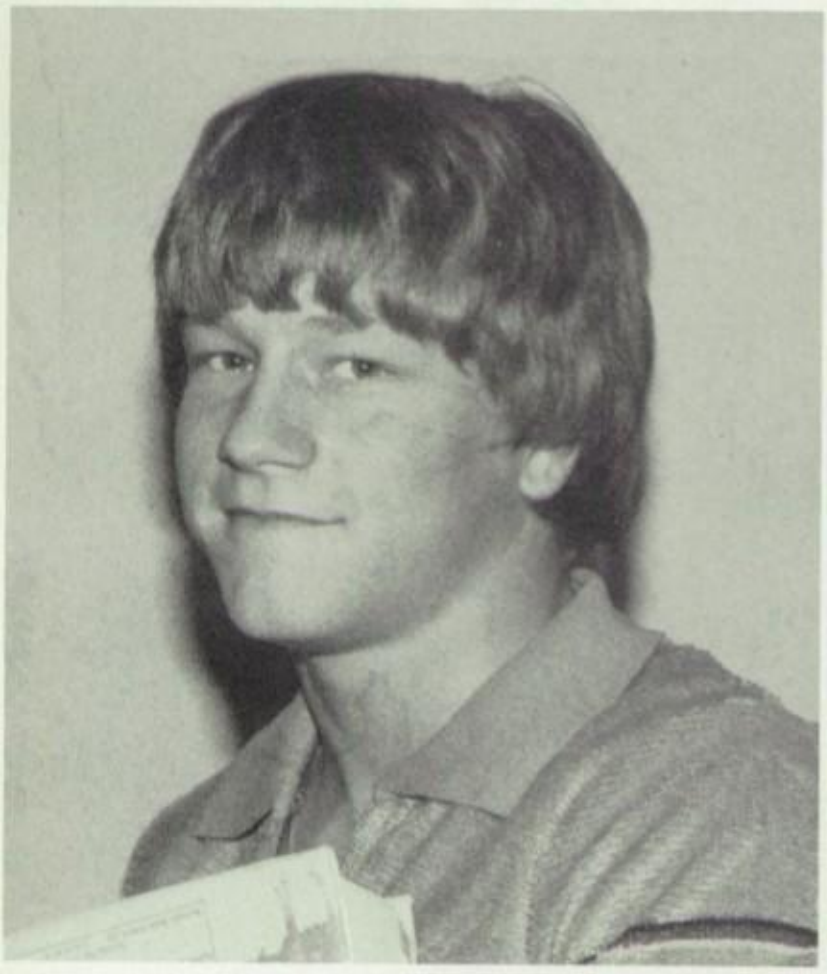
People Surrounding Dublin High



Shawn Fullagar prepares for his next big debate in Civics class.

Mr. E. Don Russell
"The principal of the thing"

Cheri Roulston, Shannon Taylor and Robin Hudson . . . three for the price of one.

Mel Leal convinces Avery Carlisle that he does chicken right.

HOMECOMING WEEK D.H.S. STYLE

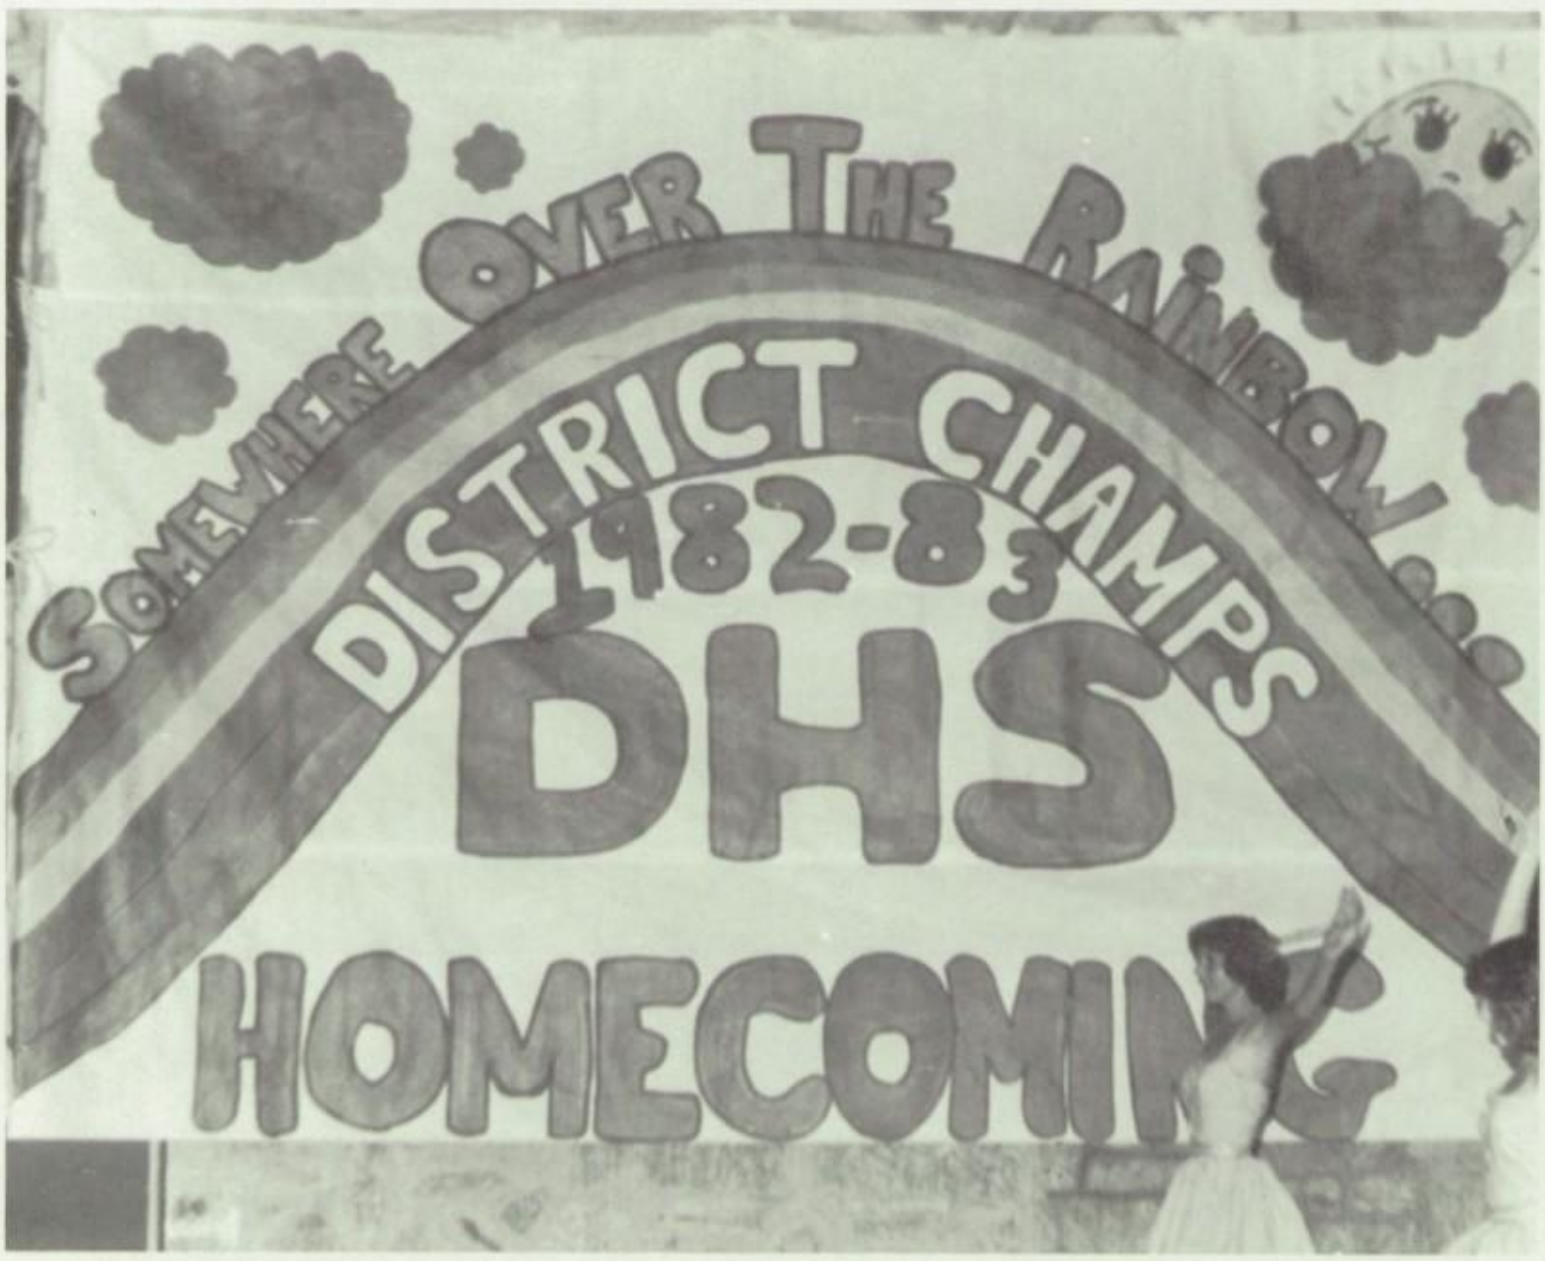
ME REALLY ! — Judy Shaw is obviously surprised as she hears her name during the half time Homecoming festivities.

It was on a warm fall evening that the Bruceville-Eddy Eagles visited Dublin Memorial Stadium. Much to their dismay, they were met by a spirited, talented Lion team that just could not be defeated. They were simply unable to handle the preparation and backing of the Green Machine. All of the week was spent building the spirit of the team, students, fans and visiting alumni. On Homecoming evening the stands were packed with anxious fans and proud parents who saw the Lions roll to a 21-6 victory. The Bruceville-Eddy Eagles were sent home with a bad memory of September 24, 1982: A Dublin Lion Homecoming.

CENTERFOLD . . . "Centerfold" The Dandi-Lions perform a tambourine pass to the song "Centerfold" during the Homecoming Pep Rally.

TOUCHDOWN ! — Luann Bradley and Karen Templeton release balloons to celebrate the first Lion score against the Bruceville-Eddy Eagles.

HOMECOMING COURT — Melanie Maniotis, Ricky Salyer, Judy Shaw, Tim Morton, Ann Cowan, and Travis Early anxiously await the announcement of the 1982 Homecoming Queen!



DHS HOMECOMING 1982 — The Homecoming sign exemplifies the spirit and motivation that every Lion, male and female, shared in the 1982-83 season!!!

SLAVE SALE . . .

September 21, 1982

Does Mrs. Billingsley really love Kenneth Hickman?

EVERY FRESHMAN SOLD WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR SIGNING THE FOLLOWING . . .

Slave Day Release

I,_____ , will permit the Student Council to sell me as a slave in the Slave Day Auction. I understand that the purchaser will require me to dress a certain way and to perform certain tasks.

I realize that there will be guidelines established for safety to those students participating. Therefore, I will not hold the school responsible in case of an accident.

TWO WHO'LL GIVE ME THREE? — Auctioneers Randy Pair, Cody Yarborough, and Tim Taylor ask for bids on the "SLAVES"

Slave Sale . . .

In the early 60's Dublin High School adopted a tradition . . . slave sale and slave day for the incoming Freshmen, during Homecoming Week. The purpose of the day was to provide a day of fun for all students and to assist the freshman students in feeling as though they were a part of Dublin High School. "Slaves" were purchased through an auction conducted by the Student Council. These students were required to run small errands and were made to perform certain stunts before school, at break, and at lunch. Through the years slave day has experienced many changes. Freshmen for the past three years, have been required to sign releases giving their permission permitting the Student Council to sell them as slaves. This release form was created to insure the slaves were sold on a voluntary basis. The tradition has been properly kept and is still an exciting part of the Homecoming Week.

Below: "I LOVE MONTY" Lisa Northcutt takes the microphone from Sid Underwood to profess her love for Monty McCutchen.

SLAVE DAY . . .

Slave day . . .

On September 22, Slave Day began much to the displeasure of the "Slaves." For many, the "day of bondage" began before 8:00 a.m. Early Wednesday morning found Luann Bradley and Karen Templeton carefully dressing, curling, and braiding Darren Turley for his debut as an honorary "cheerleader."

MRS. BILLINGSLEY!! We all admire how you obviously worked nights to finance your education.

D.H.S. SPELLOUT — The Drillteam performed to the inspiring song "Rocky" for their last performance at a pep rally.

Ann Cowan

We, the editors of the 1983 Shamrock have been strongly motivated to prepare an annual that the student body and the faculty could appreciate. We wish for the Class of 1983 to always treasure this, their last annual from Dublin High School. To the Classes of 1984, 1985, and 1986 we hope only to have created a lasting book to add to their collection of memories. We have enjoyed this year even though meeting our deadlines was almost impossible. We feel we have achieved our awesome goal.

1983 Editor
Amy Chambers

Our deepest heartfelt appreciation goes to the 1983 Shamrock Staff. We probably failed to tell them enough times that they did an outstanding job. Also we wish them the best of luck in their endeavor to create another great annual. Our sponsor, Mrs. Letha Northcutt has also been a great asset to the staff and its editors. We would like to express our thanks to the students of Dublin High School and the faculty members for having made 1982-1983 an exciting, eventful, and worthwhile school year.

THE 1983 SHAMROCK

Dedicated to

Mrs. Lynda Stafford

We, the members of the Shamrock staff, have chosen to dedicate the 1983 edition to a very special lady, Mrs. Lynda Stafford. We feel that she deserves to be recognized. Mrs. Stafford is a caring teacher who spends countless hours sponsoring the Dandi-Lion drill team in addition to the hours that she spends with her regular classes.

Mrs. Stafford was born in Roscoe, Texas and graduated from high school there in 1962. Next, she attended Tarleton State College where she was chosen "Playgirl of the Year." She then attended Texas Tech University where she received a Bachelor's degree in 1965. Mrs. Stafford began her teaching career shortly thereafter but returned to Tarleton during the summer months, and by 1978 she had earned a Master of Education degree.

Now she teaches not only homemaking and Home Economics Cooperative Education at Dublin but also sponsors the drill team. When the Dandi-Lions began performing at football games in 1973, Mrs. Stafford was right by their sides. In fact, her presence is still needed so desperately that it is rare to find her not by their sides. She and the girls attend class five days a week plus an additional afternoon each week perfecting their shows. Mrs. Stafford even spends most of her summers attending camps with either the officers or the entire line. She, along with co-sponsor, Ida Walker, direct the girls and set standards to which every girl must conform.

Mrs. Stafford's husband, Ed, is the principal of Dublin Jr. High. Their two children, Sherri and Stacae, are both active in the Dublin School District.

SENIORS

Don't Quit Now

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit —
Rest if you must, but — don't you quit
Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a fellow turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out,
Don't give up though the pace seems slow —
You may succeed with another blow.
Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man;
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup;
And he learned too late when the night came down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out —
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit —
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

Senior Trip '83

May 12, 13, 14

The Class of 1983 embarked on their Senior Trip at 7:00 a.m. on Thursday, May 12. The flat tire delayed the actual departure time an hour. Nonetheless the students arrived at their destination: Longhorn Caverns at 11:00 a.m. The class toured the caverns, dined on a picnic lunch and boarded the bus bound for Landa Resort in New Braunfels. Arriving at 4:00 the Seniors headed for the pool. That evening the class ate dinner at the Fireside Inn. It was an enjoyable evening except for the length of time taken to prepare medium well steaks. After two hours the kids left the restaurant and went back to the resort.

Friday dawned with the class eagerly walking to the Schlitterbahn, a water amusement park close to Landa Resort. A fun, eventful day ensued and ended with the class enjoying 6 foot long sandwiches and dancing at the Bavarian Village, a German restaurant. A baby bottle drinking contest and Leon's dancing partner, Naomi, an owner of the establishment, were highlights of the evening.

Before leaving for home the Seniors went tubing down the Comal River. After lunch, the class happily departed for Dublin. Home at last, the Seniors of 1983 arrived at 8:30 p.m.

ATHLETICS

you think you are beaten, you are,
you think that you dare not, you don't,
you'd like to win, but you think you can't,
s almost certain you won't.

you think you'll lose, you've lost,
r out in the world you'll find ccess begins with a fellow's will — s all in the state of mind.

If you think you are out-classed, you are;
You've got to think high to rise;
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.

Life's battles don't always go to the stronger or faster man;
But sooner or later the man who wins
Is the man who thinks he can.

A DUBLIN LION

It is a great honor and proud tradition to be a Dublin Lion. You are not born a Lion. You must set your goal to be a Lion and have a burning desire to fulfill that goal. The team is always first to a Lion. He allows nothing to come between him and the team. He loves and cares for everyone on the team. Loyalty is very important to a Lion. He wants the team to depend on him, and does whatever is necessary to achieve that loyalty. He is always positive about his team and himself. He knows that he must work very hard to be a winner, because you never get anything in life of value for nothing.

A Lion is a sorry loser. He is a sorry loser because he will not allow himself to accept failure. A Lion's No. 1 desire is to be a winner. He desires to be a winner not only on the field, but also in life. A Lion places himself around winners because he knows that he is a product of the people with whom he associates. A Lion sets good examples for younger Lions because he had those same good examples set for him.

It is very hard to be a Dublin Lion. Sometimes you may even question if it is worth all of the sacrifices. My freshman year I quit the team. I did not make the sacrifices that were necessary to be a Dublin Lion. But I can tell you now that it is worth paying the price to be a Dublin Lion. A Dublin Lion can always walk with his head held high, because he is a success, and success requires no explanation.

ONE System COOLS & HEATS

your entire home quietly, efficiently, dependably

Switches from heating to cooling automatically, as required. The Weathertron system uses much less energy than an ordinary electric furnace. Delivers more than 2 units of heat for every unit of electricity it uses and operating costs are surprisingly low. (Under ARI Standard Rating conditions at 45° F.) It's easy to install. Requires no fuel storage tank, no chimney or gas connection.
